For many years, opponents of LGBTQ nondiscrimination protections have attacked the transgender community in an attempt to create fear and misunderstanding among the general public, and reduce the broad public support for protections.

The word gender, like development, had a specific usage before feminist theorists extended its meaning. One of the earliest uses of gender in feminist theory can be traced to the 1976 University of Sussex Workshop on the Subordination of Women and the school of thought that emerged from this workshop. Scholars such as Olivia Harris, Maureen...
